Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The examiner is in receipt of applicant's response to election/restriction requirement mailed 3/31/2006, which was received 10/6/2006. Acknowledgement is made to the cancellation of claims 1-37 and the addition of new claims 38-97. Applicant further submitted a terminal disclaimer to US Patent 6,625,581. The examiner has carefully considered applicant's remarks and amendments, and after review of applicant's submitted IDS on 1/06/2006 the following rejection is provided:

Information Disclosure Statement

The examiner has only provided an initialed copy of the IDS submitted 1/6/2006, since the IDS submitted 11/4/2005 is duplicate.

Specification

The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Examiner's Note

Examiner has cited particular columns and line numbers or figures in the references as applied to the claims below for the convenience of the applicant.

Art Unit: 3625

Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply as well. It is respectfully requested from the applicant, in preparing the responses, to fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior art or disclosed by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 38-97 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Call (US 6,154,738).

In regards to claims 38-97, Call teaches all the features of the instant claims. For instance, Call discloses a tag embedded in an HTML document that when activated automatically returns an address that is forwarded to a destination where the information can be found (col 2, lines 10-45), wherein authorized party may manage the
